Come on this Boston food tour with an empty stomach and a hunger for pizza - now that's an order!

Meet in the North End, Boston's oldest neighbourhood, and begin your tasty Boston food tour at the oldest pizzeria in Boston, which opened its doors in Little Italy in 1926. Take notes as you savour your first slice of pizza, but don't declare it the winner yet – you still have two more to go! This Little Italy tour in Boston will take you a couple more spots to help you decide which is the best pizza in Boston.

Your Boston pizza tour continues to tantalise your tastebuds as you move on to a Sicilian joint that is hidden to non-locals. Luckily, you'll have your local guide to show you the way! Locals line up here before the doors even open, so you'll be privy to some pretty premium information. Taste another delicious slice at the Boston pizza joint, and keep those flavors in mind as we continue on this Boston tour.

Give your stomach a rest – but not your nose! – as you take in the aromas of an old-school Italian grocery store. See where pizzerias nab their fresh, authentic ingredients and delight in some samples too.

The moment of truth – this Boston pizza tour reaches its final stop at a pizzeria voted 'Best of Boston'. You're going to need to make a decision - which pizza reigns supreme?

Can't make up your mind? Talk to the locals – they'll be sure to have a favourite and will try persuade you to agree!
